When
As soon as you receive a gift, please email giftprocessing@nufoundation.org to let them know you are sending a gift to their attention. Please direct donors who are interested in making a gift to contact either your college’s assigned fundraiser or to gift processing. Either team can assist with providing the details needed to complete the donation.

How
Gifts should be sent to the attention of Gift Processing at the University of Nebraska Foundation. Campus mail services can be utilized. The following must accompany a gift:

- Any documentation that was sent in with the gift (e.g., contribution card, letter)
- A gift transmittal form (available on NUFFO or by request from giftprocessing@nufoundation.org)

After the gift is sent
The Gift Processing Team will reach out with questions to ensure the gift is accurately coded. It will take at least five business days for gifts to appear in NUFFO. Processing will be delayed if the check is made out to the University of Nebraska or a specific campus, college or department, as the check will require endorsement by the University of Nebraska Central Administration Office of Business and Finance. The processing time may increase during peak giving seasons.
